DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed January 19, 2006 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2), which requires a legible copy of each cited foreign patent document; each non-patent literature publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; and all other information or that portion which caused it to be listed. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered. The German Publications have not been provided and therefore have not been considered.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "arrestor" as claimed in claim 17 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

3. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: It should be made clear in the specification what element(s) constitute the arrestor as claimed in claim 17..

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 14-16,21,22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Kaida et al. '745.

Regarding claims 14-16,21,22 Kaida et al. Discloses in the abstract and shows in figures 1-3 a device for initiating and implementing a sudden vehicle deceleration having an explosive charge at 7 and an igniting means at 8. Note the piston at 3 and 23.

4. Claims 14,15,17,20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Howells et al.

Regarding claims 14,15,17,20 Howells shows a device at 35 containing rocket fuel which is ignited by element 36 to force a contact pad 36 against the pavement thereby providing an emergency braking action. Note the slider valves at 38. Note the arrestor—explosive bolts 19 or shear pin 52.

5. Claims 27-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Rastegar et al.

Rastegar shows a protective barrier for the “emergency braking” of vehicles that may be carrying a car bomb. See col. 5 lines 30. Such a vehicle equipped with a bomb is capable of functioning as claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 24-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kaida et al. in view of Rao et al. or Bloomfield et al..

Regarding claims 24-26 Kaida et al. lacks a showing of adapting the device to a vehicle having equipped with an antilock brake system (inherently provided with valves to control the fluid to the wheel cylinders) and a collision avoidance system.

Both of the brake systems to Rao et al. or Bloomfield et al. teach such a system equipped with sensors and/or cameras.

One having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention would have found it obvious to have used the emergency braking device of Kaida et al. with the collision avoidance systems of either Rao or Bloomfield to provide an additional measure of safety in extraordinary circumstances.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 18,19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure..
